

Abode Property Management Property Portfolio

Abode Property Management (APM), also known as Housing for Independent People, Inc. (HIP), owns and/or manages the properties listed. Applications are not available for distribution. All of our vacancies are filled through referral based housing as regulated by our Affirmative Fair Housing Marketing Plan. Abode Services Occupancy Team submits a notice of unit availability to each corresponding referring agency that provides a description of referral eligibility when a unit becomes available. The referring agency then submit an eligible applicant for the available unit. For information on applying for housing, please contact the corresponding referring agency listed below for each property we manage.
